

HISTORIC PRESERVATION UNDERGRADUATE ACADEMIC CERTIFICATE

All required coursework must be completed with a grade of C or better (O-10-a (<https://catalog.uidaho.edu/general-requirements-academic-procedures/o-miscellaneous/>)).

Code	Title	Hours
LARC 2550	Introduction to Historic Preservation	3
CAA 3800	United States History of the Built Environment	3
LARC 3420	Documenting and Interpreting the Built Environment	3
CAA 4800	Applied Historic Preservation Practice	3
Total Hours		12

Courses to total 12 credits for this certificate

- learn the history of the built environment within the United States (including what is considered pre-history to the current era).
- be able to understand and apply historic preservation/conservation processes for the built environment.
- be able to complete submissions for the National Historic Register.