ADULT ORGANIZATIONAL LEARNING AND LEADERSHIP (M.S.)

Master of Science. Major in Adult/Organizational Learning and Leadership.

General M.S. Requirements apply.

1. Candidates are able to investigate core issues within their organizations and present their findings and recommendations in light of cultural and contextual issues.

2. Candidates are able to analyze, synthesize, and apply organization development concepts.

3. Candidates are able to design, articulate, and implement broad organization operational and change plans.

4. Candidates are able to assess an adult/education situation and develop recommendations useful for HRD practitioners or leaders to implement, based on adult and transformational learning theory and practice.