Applicants for M.Ed. degree are expected to meet the requirements for the teaching certificate and one year of teaching experience.

Master of Education. Major in Educational Leadership.

Educational leadership provides programs for the preparation of school administrators and for persons interested in teaching or administration in institutions of higher learning. Master of Education and Education Specialist degrees with an emphasis in educational leadership and options for a certificate as a principal and/or superintendent may be earned in the department. Ph.D. and Ed.D. with an emphasis in educational leadership and options for a certificate as a principal and/or superintendent may be earned through the college of Education.