STAMP Exit Exam

One of the following:

- International Experience (Minimum of 8 weeks) 5
- FLEN 401 Topics in Global Studies (New Course - Topics in Global Studies)

The 30 credits of upper-division French coursework must include a minimum of 9 credits at the 400-level.

2. The 30 credits of upper-division French coursework may include no more than 6 credits of FLEN coursework. The remaining credits must be in FREN coursework.

3. The 30 credits of upper-division French coursework must include a minimum of 9 credits completed on campus.

4. This requirement is waived for students with a double major (French plus another major)

5. Studying abroad is highly recommended and the international experience option may be fulfilled by completing an approved study abroad program or international internship or faculty-led experience or a combination of all. This experience (completed in French) should take place after the student has finished language study through the intermediate (200) level. The study abroad program or the internship must receive prior approval from the student's major advisor.

The degree map is a guide for the timely completion of your curricular requirements. Your academic advisor or department may be contacted for assistance in interpreting this map. This map is not reflective of your academic history or transcript and it is not official notification of completion of degree or certificate requirements. Please contact the Registrar’s Office regarding your official degree/certificate completion status.

1. Communicative Proficiency: Students will demonstrate foreign language proficiency in writing, speaking, listening, and reading.
2. Analytical Ability: Students will evaluate the ways an international experience impacted their problem solving skills, language ability, and social skills.
3. Cultural Understanding: Students will demonstrate an increased understanding of the interconnectedness between language, culture, and its people.
4. Acquisition of knowledge: Students will compare the linguistic, political, artistic, and/or social customs of another culture to their experiences in the United States.
5. Citizenship: Students will analyze the ways in which an international experience impacted them as global citizens.
