- 1) Students should be able to explain the historical context that shapes human consciousness and action and identify those factors which shape continuity and change in diverse human communities.
- 2) Students should recognize the rich diversity of human artifacts, reflect upon how they illuminate the historical past, and use them to make meaning of the human experience.
- 3) Students should understand historical evidence and interpretation, assess their strengths and weaknesses, and situate both in broader scholarly debate.
- 4) Students can formulate historical questions and engage in independent research and inquiry.
- 5) Students demonstrate command of formal language and can exchange ideas in a cogent, coherent, and respectful manner.
- 6) Students can apply historical knowledge so they can reflect upon global human experience and complexity.
