FILM AND TELEVISION STUDIES (B.A. OR B.S.)

Note: Students must have a 2.5 GPA to major and must attain a 2.5 GPA to graduate with the Film and Television Studies degree.

Prerequisite: FTV 100 must be completed with a 'C' or above before enrolling in other courses in the sequence.

Film and Television Studies is an interdisciplinary degree taught on the film school model, whereby students will learn how to think critically and historically about film and culture while learning the fundamentals of film writing and film making. This degree prepares students to meet the growing demand for digitally fluent and professionally trained multimedia storytelling across the media industries, as well as in public institutions, government, and business.

Required course work includes the university requirements (see regulation J-3 ([https://catalog.uidaho.edu/general-requirements-academic-procedures/j-general-requirements-baccalaureate-degrees/#j3])) and the following:
