The degree map is a guide for the timely completion of your curricular requirements. Your academic advisor or department may be contacted for assistance in interpreting this map. This map is not reflective of your academic history or transcript and it is not official notification of completion of degree or certificate requirements. Please contact the Registrar's Office regarding your official degree/certificate completion status.

The School of Journalism and Mass Media curriculum for Journalism enables our students to learn the values and skills that will prepare them for work and citizenship in a diverse and global society.

JAMM Values

1. Apply the principles and laws of freedom of speech and press in a global context and in the United States

2. Demonstrate an understanding of the multicultural history and role of professionals, individuals and institutions in shaping communications
3. Demonstrate culturally proficient communication that empowers those traditionally disenfranchised in society, especially as grounded in gender, race, ethnicity, sexual orientation and ability, domestically and globally, across communication and media contexts
4. Understand concepts and apply theories in the use and presentation of images and information
5. Demonstrate an understanding of professional ethical principles and work ethically in pursuit of truth, accuracy, fairness and diversity

JAMM Skills

1. Apply critical thinking skills in conducting research and evaluating information by methods appropriate to the communications professions in which they work
2. Write correctly and clearly in forms and styles appropriate for the communications professions, audiences and purposes they serve
3. Critically evaluate their own work and that of others for accuracy and fairness, clarity, appropriate style and grammatical correctness
4. Apply basic numerical and statistical concepts
5. Apply tools and technologies appropriate for the communications professions in which they work
