Chandra Zenner Ford, Office of the President and Center Executive Officer, Boise and Southwestern Idaho. 322 East Front Street, Suite 190, Boise, Idaho 83702; 208-334-2999; www.uidaho.edu/boise, (http://www.uidaho.edu/boise/boise@uidaho.edu)

Strategic Focus

As the state's only land-grant institution, the University of Idaho is responsible for engaging citizens, businesses, and institutions throughout the state.

The University of Idaho Boise (<http://www.uidaho.edu/boise/>) provides access to all University of Idaho resources to southwest Idaho. U of I Boise is focused on creating community impact, developing regional economy, and supporting university growth, as well as having an engaged university campus with a climate of inclusion for employees throughout its regions of responsibility.

Strategically located in Boise, the economic and governmental center of Idaho and home of more than 55 percent of the state's population and business entities, U of I Boise supports teaching, learning, research and outreach. We distinguish ourselves through the following areas:

- Quality programs that accommodate working professionals and full-time students with a focus on professional and workforce development.
- Outreach to southwest Idaho's communities to foster their sustainability, growth, and educational access.
- Proactive research for domestic and global solution.
- Collaborative and interdisciplinary work with the public and private sectors, including other institutions of higher education.
- Enduring relationships with alumni and friends to carry forward the proud history and traditions of the University of Idaho.

Location

The University of Idaho established a presence in Boise with the Ada County Extension program in 1910. Today, the primary home of the University of Idaho Boise is at the intersection of Front Street and Broadway Avenue in the Idaho Water Center building, with other locations throughout the downtown, such as the College of Law at the Idaho Law and Learning Center on Jefferson Street, the Integrated Design Lab on Front Street, and the Ada County Extension offices located on Glenwood Street.

U of I Boise also has leadership and administrative responsibility for University of Idaho activity in south central Idaho, including the Magic Valley and Wood River Valley.
