

NATURAL RESOURCES AND ENVIRONMENTAL LAW GRADUATE CERTIFICATE

This 12-credit graduate certificate in Natural Resources and Environmental Law is intended primarily for non-law graduate students.

This certificate introduces professionals with limited to no prior legal training to the legal regimes in their day-to-day compliance activities. This certificate better prepares professionals to work as resource managers, agency scientists, ranchers, foresters, or other professions that extract, allocate, manage, or conserve natural resources.

Code	Title	Hours
LAW 9070	Administrative Law	3
LAW 9420	Water Law of the American West	3
LAW 9470	Environmental Law	3
LAW 9480	Public Lands and Resources Law	3

Courses to total 12 credits for this certificate